

Who should use this form?

You should use this form if you are:

- applying for a student visa to study in Australia and wish to nominate a guardian to accompany you to Australia on a Student Guardian visa;
- already studying in Australia as the holder of a student visa and wish to nominate a guardian to join you in Australia on a Student Guardian visa.

Nominating a student guardian

Complete this form in ENGLISH using BLOCK LETTERS. In order to complete this form you must first read these notes and information form 1234i Applying for a student guardian visa, available from your nearest Australian Government office overseas or the website of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

You may nominate a guardian to accompany you to, or join you in, Australia on a Student Guardian visa if:

- you are less than 18 years of age and require a guardian to provide appropriate care and welfare arrangements; or
- you are more than 18 years of age and there are exceptional reasons for you to require a guardian.

Except in very limited circumstances, your guardian, if applying for a Student Guardian visa, must be a parent or relative. A relative is defined as a spouse, a child, adopted child, brother or sister of the applicant, step-child, step-parent, step-brother or step-sister of the applicant, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew, or a step-grandparent, step-grandchild, step-aunt, step-uncle, step-niece or step-nephew of the applicant. Your student guardian must be aged 21 years or over.

Every applicant for a Student Guardian visa must satisfy the criteria for grant. These criteria include, but are not limited to, their relationship to you, their age, financial capacity, family composition and arrangements for any dependent family members, intention to comply with visa conditions and other relevant matters. Information on these criteria and the conditions, which are likely to be attached to their visa, can be found in the information form 1234i Applying for a student guardian visa.

Lodging your student guardian nomination form

Your guardian should lodge this nomination form with form 157G Application for a Student Guardian visa.

If we need further information in relation to your nomination, we will contact your student guardian.

If any information provided in this nomination form changes, or you no longer wish to nominate this person as your student guardian, you must advise the office of the department where your student guardian has lodged their visa application.

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose which you have provided them, unless there is legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

About the information you give to the department

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958. The information collected will be used for assessing your eligibility for a visa to travel to, enter and remain in Australia and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act, for example to assist migrants with settling in Australia, to monitor the conduct of migration agents, or for ensuring compliance with the Migration Act.

The information collected might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, review of decisions and registration of migration agents. It will also be disclosed to any agency of the Australian Government, or of a state or territory, that is responsible for or otherwise concerned with the regulation of education providers.

Relevant information about you will be disclosed to federal, state and territory police to assist in your location and possible detention in the event that you become an unlawful non-citizen. You will become an unlawful non-citizen if your visa ceases (for example, by cancellation for breach of visa condition) or expires and you do not hold another visa authorising you to remain in Australia.

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by the department of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed. This form is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any departmental office or Australian mission overseas.

The department has authority under the Migration Act 1958 to collect a range of personal identifiers from non-citizens, including visa applicants, in certain circumstances. For more detailed information you should read information form 1243i Your personal identifying information. This form is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any departmental office or Australian mission overseas.

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) also relates to your personal information. Under the FOI Act you can apply for access to documents containing your personal information. You or someone authorised by you to access information on your behalf can apply to do this at any departmental office in Australia. There is no fee for accessing your own information. If you are overseas, you must also provide the Australian mission with an address in Australia to which copies of personal records can be sent. More information on how to make a request under the FOI Act is given on form 424A Request for access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any departmental office or Australian mission overseas.
